

A NO CALL list should be exactly that, a NO CALL list. When we put our names on the list it was because we did NOT want to ever get another call from a telemarketer. NOT EVER AGAIN. To change that would be a total disregard for the rights of people not to be harassed. Who benefits if this rule is changed? Certainly not the people of Wisconsin.